WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 3.

LIGHTING A MATCH. - The match box, the wall and the carpet are the three substances upon which the average woman will consent to light a match; and it should be noticed, as a curious and yet unexplained fact, that no wo man, in any circumstances, dreams of lighting matches on the under side of a marble mantel piece. Man, on the other hand, regards the mantel piece as the natural complement of the match, and if he happens to be near one when about to light a match, uniformly scratches on the under side of the marble. Some men pre fer to light matches on the soles of their boots, except, of course, when the soles in question are damp. The vast majority of male human beings, whether men, boys or advocates of female dress reform, light their matches on their

A number of American women sent to Worth, the Parisian Modiste, asking him, "What cos tumes can be devised that will be perfectly healthy, and, at the same time, beautiful?' He replied: "I have to make the same answer to you that I have made to the women of Eu rope. The costume of the Persian women is the handsomest on the face of the earth. It consists of a loose waist, short skirt, and trousers not too loose. I have made this costume beautifully, and hung it up in Paris, but the women will not wear it. I can do nothing more. They must suffer uctil they are willing to
